Dear parents and carers,

We seem to be approaching the end of term with great speed! All our schools are eagerly anticipating updates on guidelines and are making formative plans for September—as I mentioned in a previous newsletter, we are delighted to be able to maintain our 3 class structure at Veryan School with our existing teachers and support staff. I can now confirm that the structure for September will be as follows:

Nursery, Reception & Year 1—Carne Class with Miss Goodall (& support staff tbc) in the current Carne class room

Year 2,3 & 4—Pendower Class with Miss Blayney, Mrs Spears (& support staff tbc) in the current Kiberick class room.

Year 5 & 6 - Kiberick Class with Mrs Cartwright (& support staff tbc) in the current Pendower class room.

I'm afraid we cannot be certain of support staff timetabling at the moment due to the possibility of a continuing class bubble system, but will update you as soon as we can. As soon as we are given firm Government guidelines and are certain of the plans for September, with regards to daily timetables etc. we will inform you of these via email. For now, I hope that you are reassured by the continuity that we are able to offer our pupils by maintaining a similar staffing structure to this year.

We are also very excited to announce the opening of a third bubble from Wednesday 7th July as some of our Early Years pupils have now expressed an interest in returning to school.

I wish you all an enjoyable week—don't forget to take a look at our year 6 enterprise project along with all the other fantastic work that's been going on in school and at home.

With kind regards

Caroline Jarrett

Caleb's mini- novel

The Waddle Gang Adventure

One sunny, spring morning Josh set off for a nice walk with his funny dog, Nelson.

After they had been walking for a long time Nelson was thirsty and plunged into the cold pond for a drink and a cool off! Unfortunately, there were nine wriggly tadpoles hatching from their eggs but Nelson madly disturbed them with his gigantic paws and slashing tongue.

Some of the tadpoles got slowly flown down the stream that ran from the pond. Alarmingly, Waddle and the gang couldn't get back up stream no matter how hard they tried. They wagged their tails furiously trying to get up stream but it wasn't any use. Josh was curious about Waddle and his gang so he helped them get back up stream, using a jar, he carefully scooped them up, and poured them back into their home.

On the last scoop Josh kept the tadpoles in the jar, screwed a lid onto the jar so that they wouldn't escape. He was fascinated by them and wanted to see them grow up.

Josh was interested in Waddle and his gang so he decided to take them home in the little jar. Sadly, for Waddle and his gang the journey was very turbulent, as they swished from side to side. Eventually the journey ended, Waddle and his gang worried what would happen next!

Amazingly, Waddle and the gang were looked after very well by the boy.

They were happy to go into a huge container with places to hide and all the things they liked from the wild. Josh fed them and cleaned their water every day and they were grateful for this.

When the tadpoles became frogs Josh released them into the pond where they were born, so they could lay their eggs. Josh said to himself happily, "I would like to look after more tadpoles one day ...!"

Waddle and the gang hopped off to mate and lay their eggs, then the frogs went off to have other great adventures in the wild.

THE END

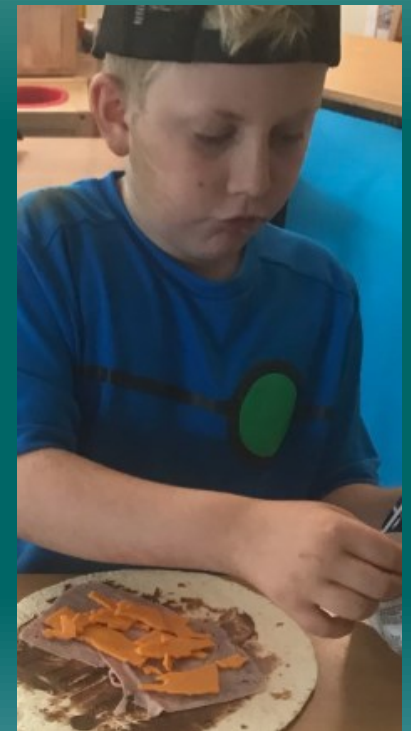

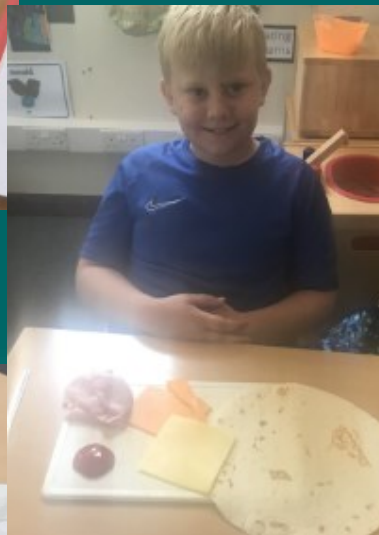

Next week's mini novel will be brought to you by Ysella.

In Carne Class Bubble last week, we made our own sandwiches and wraps.

We really enjoyed the independence and developing our skills, from the planning stage....

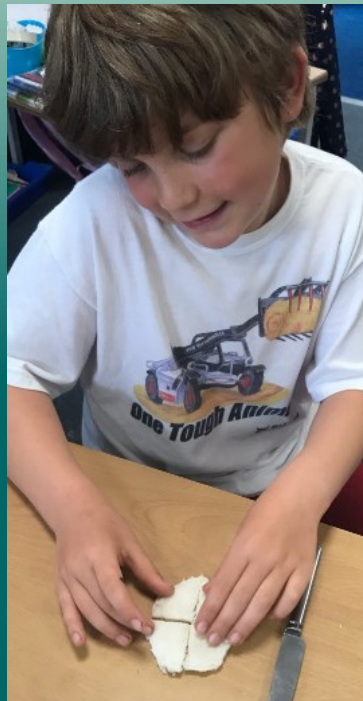

...to the making...

...to the eating!! Yum!

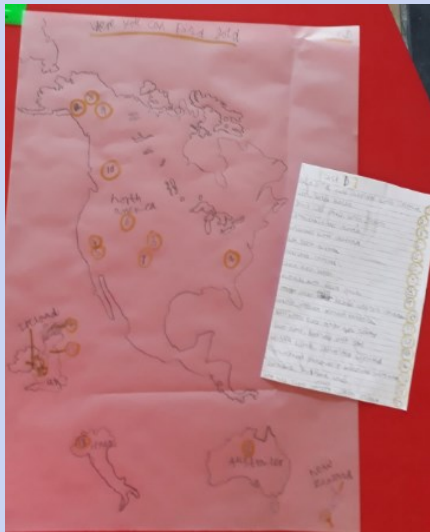

Sandwiches are not just for eating—we used them for learning about equivalent fractions this week too!

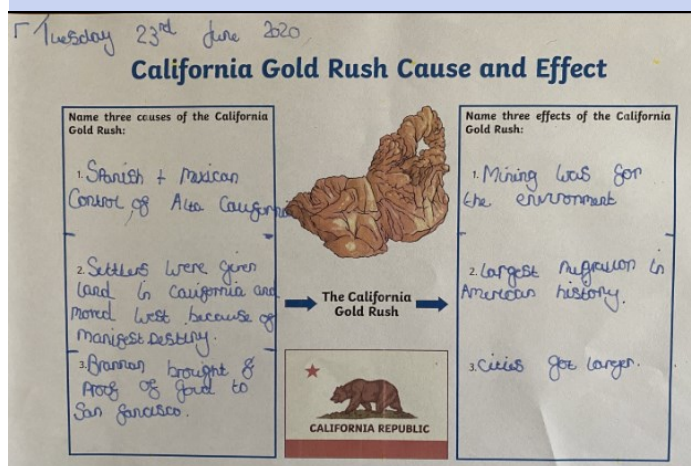

Here's some of our Carne bubble exploring team dynamics and developing a new appreciation of the power of working as one

Kiberick class

Fredster produced a map of different places where gold can be found....

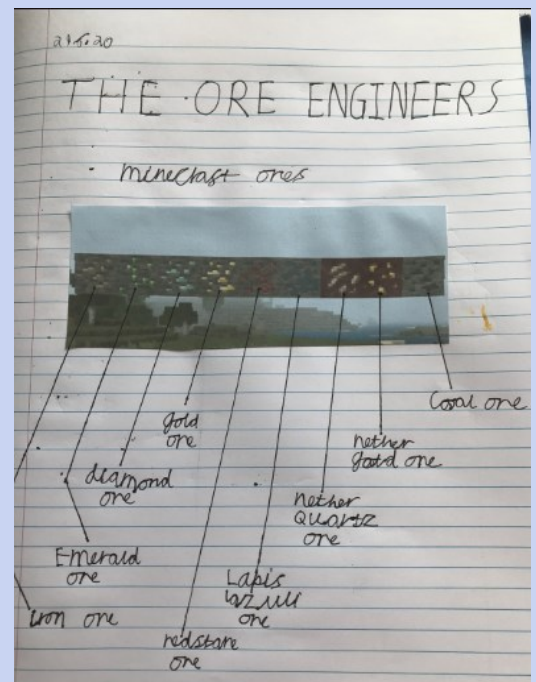

Amy's work about the California Gold Rush

...and drew the machine with which to extract it!

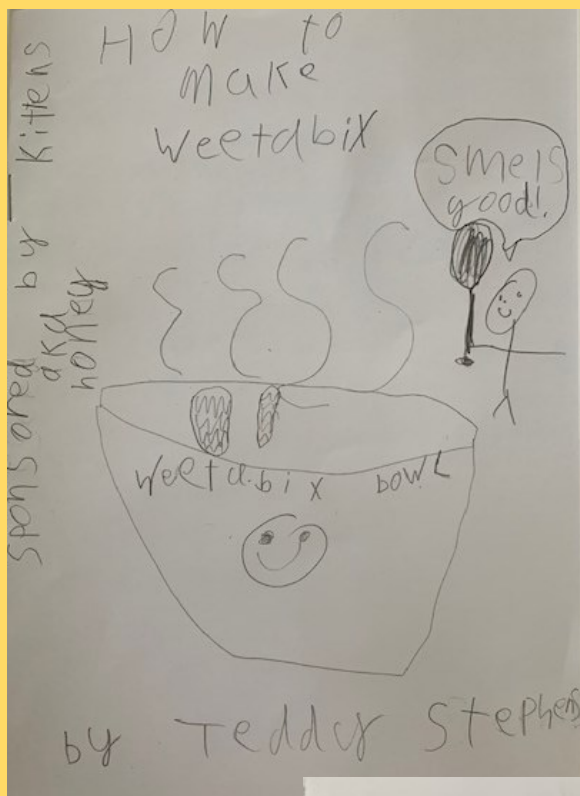

Charlie designed a Minecraft landscape with different ore components.

Our bubble has been busy this week making a start on painting the shed and benches for their community projects and producing items for their enterprise project which will go on sale soon. Look out for the brochure with details of what's available and the price guide!

Dear Miss Jarrett,

Greetings from Truro Cathedral. The cathedral re-opened for prayer only last week having been closed for three months as a result of the pandemic precautions. Returning to the cathedral has been a source of great joy for us and many people have to come to pray, to be still, to reflect, or just hold themselves in God's presence. Although at present we are still not able to hold public worship, the clergy continue to pray at Morning and Evening Prayer for the situation many find themselves in and for our communities at this difficult time.

This morning we prayed for Veryan Church of England Primary School as it was included in the Diocesan Prayer Diary for today. We prayed for the school, for its work, staff, governors, students, families and all associated with the school. We prayed also for those associated with the school at this difficult time during the pandemic, for those who have returned to school and for those still at home. This email is being sent as a sign of encouragement and support. Please be assured of our ongoing thoughts and prayers.

Simon.
Canon Precentor.
